

Instructions

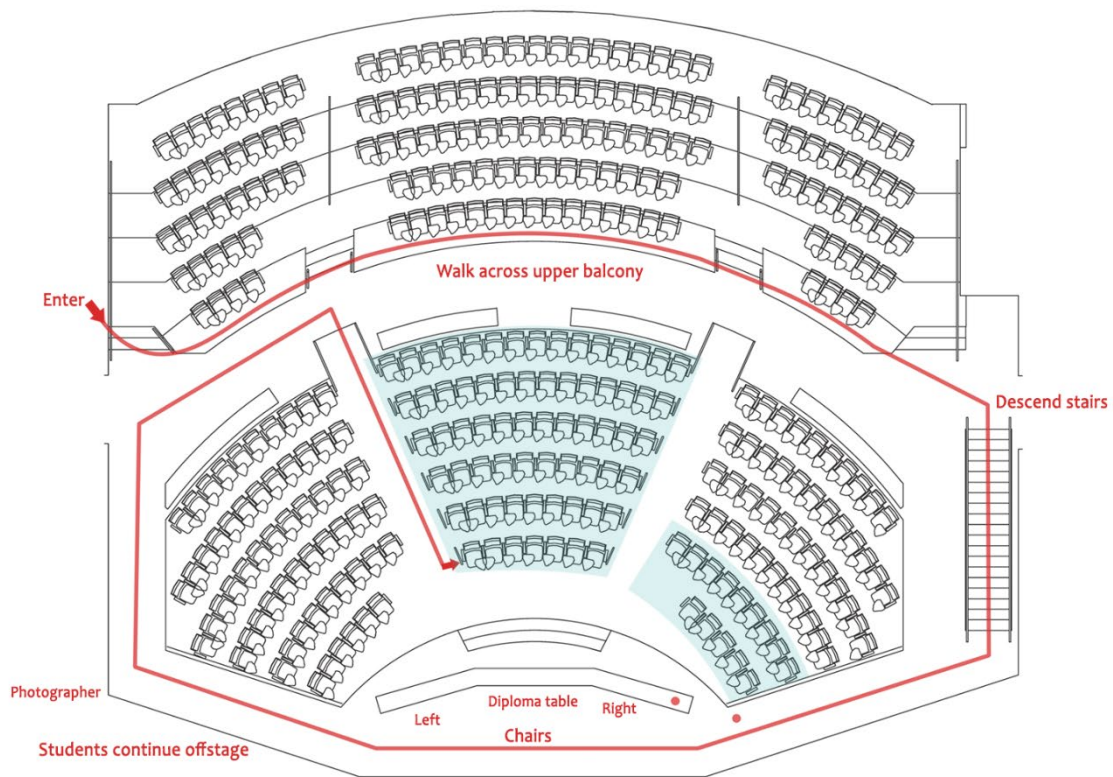

You need to be in Straub 145 (the classroom across from the auditorium) by 3:20. This is where you will get your name card and line up.

Here is a quick overview of how you'll enter the auditorium.

I will be explaining this in more detail before the ceremony.

1. Enter the auditorium (Straub 156) from the second floor
2. Walk across the balcony
3. Walk down the stairs
4. Walk to the stage
5. Cross the stage
6. Exit the stage
7. Walk behind the seats
8. Turn into your row and enter to the left

The first row of students will begin in the third row of chairs.

You will be cued on when it is your row's turn to proceed to the stage and receive your degree. You will repeat steps 4 – 8. When you get to center stage, you will pause and have your picture taken accepting your diploma.

You will pause again at the photography area and have another picture taken of you with your degree.
